Sir:

DECLARATION UNDER 37 C.F.R. §1.132

I, Jin Yang, hereby declare as follows:

1. I am currently employed as a professional illustrator and manager of an illustration department in a patent law firm. I have been a professional illustrator for over ten years.
2. I have reviewed and understand the specification of the subject U.S. patent application.
3. In my capacity as a professional illustrator, I have prepared presentation materials and exhibits for litigation, I have prepared large display posters from Microsoft PowerPoint slides, and I have prepared posters similar to those described in the subject patent application.

4. From my review of the specification, I understand the meaning of "substantive" data in the claims to include all data other than poster design parameters, which design parameters include poster size, orientation, figure placement, resolution, paper type, colors and the like. At a minimum, the term "substantive data" refers to poster content.

5. I further declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under the laws of the United States, Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code, and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patents issuing thereon.
